Development Partners' Assistance Matrix for the GMS Economic Cooperation Program: Ongoing and Proposed Projects (as of 2014)

5th GMS Summit
Bangkok, Thailand
19-20 December 2014

The Development Partners' Assistance Matrix for the GMS Economic Cooperation Program is an inventory of development partners' ongoing and planned subregional projects in the GMS. The matrix consolidates the responses of 20 out of 35 respondents to the survey conducted by the GMS Secretariat on 1 September to 17 October 2014. The matrix is an information-sharing exercise initiated for the Roundtable Meeting of Development Partners at the 5th GMS Summit (19 December 2014, Bangkok, Thailand) to help explore synergies and potential partnerships among development partners for the implementation of the GMS Regional Investment Framework (RIF) projects. The matrix will be updated periodically in continued cooperation with development partners.

Notes:

- (i) produce goods and services that benefit participating countries;
- (ii) jointly respond to cross-border issues, such as environmental degradation, international crime, communicable diseases, natural disasters, or regional economic crises;
- (iii) develop national projects with significant regional dimensions or implications, such as a country transport system that is part of a regional transport system, a national power grid within a regional power grid, and associated agreements and protocols that allow an efficient flow of goods, services and people, harmonization of standards and regulations, or cost-effective communication across region's countries;
- (iv) support research and knowledge of regional programs on cross-border infrastructure and related software, trade and investment, money and finance, and regional public goods, such as prevention of communicable diseases and environmental degradation; and
- (v) promote knowledge sharing and dissemination among participating countries.

<sup>2</sup> Investment or Technical Assistance projects could be funded by loans, grants or both.

<sup>3</sup> Sectors are based on the Regional Investment Framework 2013-2022 (<http://www.adb.org/sites/default/files/overview-gms-regional-investment-framework-2013-2022.pdf>):

- (i) Agriculture
- (ii) Energy
- (iii) Environment
- (iv) Human Resource Development
- (v) Information and Communication Technology
- (vi) Tourism
- (vii) Transport
- (viii) Transport and Trade Facilitation
- (ix) Urban Development
- (x) Other Multisector/ Cross-Border Economic Zones

Notes:

- (i) produce goods and services that benefit participating countries;
- (ii) jointly respond to cross-border issues, such as environmental degradation, international crime, communicable diseases, natural disasters, or regional economic crises;
- (iii) develop national projects with significant regional dimensions or implications, such as a country transport system that is part of a regional transport system, a national power grid within a regional power grid, and associated agreements and protocols that allow an efficient flow of goods, services and people, harmonization of standards and regulations, or cost-effective communication across region's countries;
- (iv) support research and knowledge of regional programs on cross-border infrastructure and related software, trade and investment, money and finance, and regional public goods, such as prevention of communicable diseases and environmental degradation; and
- (v) promote knowledge sharing and dissemination among participating countries.

<sup>2</sup> Investment or Technical Assistance projects could be funded by loans, grants or both.

<sup>3</sup> Sectors are based on the Regional Investment Framework 2013-2022 (<http://www.adb.org/sites/default/files/overview-gms-regional-investment-framework-2013-2022.pdf>):

- (i) Agriculture
- (ii) Energy
- (iii) Environment
- (iv) Human Resource Development
- (v) Information and Communication Technology
- (vi) Tourism
- (vii) Transport
- (viii) Transport and Trade Facilitation
- (ix) Urban Development
- (x) Other Multisector/ Cross-Border Economic Zones

About the Development Partners' Matrix

The Development Partners' Assistance Matrix for the GMS Economic Cooperation Program is an inventory of development partners' ongoing and planned subregional projects in the GMS. The matrix consolidates the responses of 20 out of 35 respondents to the survey conducted by the GMS Secretariat on 1 September to 17 October 2014. The matrix is an information-sharing exercise initiated for the Roundtable Meeting of Development Partners at the 5th GMS Summit (19 December 2014, Bangkok, Thailand) to help explore synergies and potential partnerships among development partners for the implementation of the GMS Regional Investment Framework (RIF) projects. The matrix will be updated periodically in continued cooperation with development partners.

About the Greater Mekong Subregion Economic Cooperation Program

The Greater Mekong Subregion (GMS) is made up of Cambodia, the People's Republic of China (PRC, specifically Yunnan Province and Guangxi Zhuang Autonomous Region), the Lao People's Democratic Republic (Lao PDR), Myanmar, Thailand, and Viet Nam. In 1992, with assistance from the Asian Development Bank (ADB) and building on their shared histories and cultures, the six countries of the GMS launched a program of subregional economic cooperation—the GMS Program—to enhance their economic relations, initially covering the nine priority sectors: agriculture, energy, environment, human resource development, investment, telecommunications, tourism, transport infrastructure, and transport and trade facilitation.
